

Jean-Michel GLACHANT

Address: EUI, Via Boccaccio 121 - 50133, Florence, Italy
Email: jean-michel.glachant@eui.eu | Telephone: +39 055 468 52872

Present CAREER (from 2008)

- Director of the Florence School of Regulation; Professor in economics and Holder of the Loyola de Palacio Chair in EU Energy Policy | Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies, European University Institute, Florence, Italy
- Research partner of the “Center for Energy and Environmental Policy Research” (CEEPR) at the MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology -USA); and of the “Electricity Policy Research Group” (EPRG) at Cambridge University – UK
- President-elect 2022 of the International Association for Energy Economics (IAEE), and Vice-President of the French “Association des Economistes de l’Energie” (AEE)

On Social Media

- Twitter @JMGlachant >10,000 followers >110,000 tweets
- LinkedIn Jean-Michel Glachant >3,000 contacts

Other activities & recent Honours (from 2011)

- Prix Marcel Boiteux de l’AEE (French Energy Economists Association), 2021
- IAEE Award (International Association for Energy Economics) for “outstanding contributions to the Profession of Energy Economics” (2018)
- Member (current or former)of the editorial board of the “Energy Journal”, “European Energy Journal”, “Latin-American Economic Journal”, “Journal of Network Industries and Competition”, “Annals for Public and Cooperative economics”, “Revue d’Economie Industrielle”
- Book Review Editor “Economics of Energy and Environment Policy” (EEEP), since 2018
- Member of Academic Advisory Committee of “Council of European Energy Regulators” 2016
- Eurelectric award of the year 2012
- Chief-Editor of the academic journal “Economics of Energy and Environment Policy” (EEEP) 2011-2016
- Member of the executive committee of the International Association for Energy Economics 2011-2016
- Member of the EU-Russia Gas Advisory Council of Commissioner Oettinger
- Member of the Advisory Council “Smart Grids” at JRC (Research Center European Commission)

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Building an integrated climate & energy policy in the EU, and outside the EU
- Interactions between energy markets and networks (design, regulation, and competition policy)
- Behaviour and strategies of public and private sectors in a wave of energy innovation (decarbonisation, decentralisation, and digitalisation)

Past CAREER (1979- 2008)

- (2000-2008)
Head of Economics Department, Professor in economics| University of Paris-Sud, Paris, France
 - Director research Lab. “Groupe Réseaux Jean Monnet” and “LARSEN”
 - Member Executive Committee “International Society for New Institutional Economics”

- Founder of Erasmus Mundus Master Programme "EMIN" (Economics and Management of Network Industries)
- (1979-1999)
 - Associated Professor or Assistant Professor in economics | Paris-Sorbonne University, Paris, France
 - Deputy-Director research Lab ATOM "Analyse Théorique des Organisations et des Marchés"

EDUCATION

Paris-Sorbonne University | Paris, France ~ PhD in Economics; Master and Bachelor in Economics
