

Conference

Between crises and decarbonisation: realigning EU climate & energy policy for the new state of the world

EUIinBxl

17 June 2022

Conference Room Topaz - Martin's Brussels EU, Belgium & Live streamed

Jean-Michel Glachant, Florence School of Regulation / Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies / European University Institute

Nicolò Rossetto, Florence School of Regulation / Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies / European University Institute

Programme

9.00 - 9.30 Welcome coffee

9.30 - 9.40 General introduction

Laurence Tubiana | European Climate Foundation

Jean-Michel Glachant | Florence School of Regulation

9.40 - 10.25 Session 1: The new state of the world: what key characteristics?

Moderator: Nicolò Rossetto | Florence School of Regulation

Introductory remarks: Jean-Michel Glachant | Florence School of Regulation

Discussant: Georg Zachmann | Bruegel

Q&A

10.25 - 11.10 Session 2: The new state of the world: what policy priorities for the EU?

Moderator: Andreas Rüdinger | Institute for Sustainable Development and International Relations

Introductory remarks: Ronnie Belmans | KU Leuven

Discussants:

Kristian Ruby | Eurelectric

Manuel García | Ministry for the Ecological Transition

Q&A

11.10 - 11.30 Coffee break

11.30 - 12.30 Session 3: The new state of the world: what process and governance to make it work?

Moderator: Laurence Tubiana | European Climate Foundation

Introductory remarks: Leigh Hancher | Florence School of Regulation

Discussant:

Stefano Grassi | European Commission

Q&A

12.30 - 12.45 General Conclusion

Laurence Tubiana | European Climate Foundation

Jean-Michel Glachant | Florence School of Regulation

12.45 - 14.00 Light buffet lunch